THE COURT FINDS that under the laws of Maryland the issuing court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter. The respondent was given reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard at a protective order hearing.

THE COURT ORDERS:

That the above named respondent SHALL NOT abuse, threaten to abuse, and/or harass the petitioner and others to be protected.

☒ That the above named respondent SHALL NOT contact the protected parties by any means, except as stated in this order.

Additional terms of the order are in this document.

The terms of this order shall be effective through 06/16/2024 at 11:59 PM.

Only the court can change this order.

NOTICE TO RESPONDENT: PENALTIES

A violation of a Final Protective Order is a crime and law enforcement shall arrest the respondent, with or without a warrant, and take the respondent into custody if the officer has probable cause to believe that the respondent has violated any provision of the Interim, Temporary, or Final Protective Order. Violation of this order may result in criminal prosecution, imprisonment or fine or both, or a finding of contempt. In accordance with Maryland Code, Family Law Article § 4-506(f), no respondent against whom a current final civil protective order has been entered may possess any firearm. This Protective Order shall be recognized and enforced by the courts of any state, the District of Columbia, any U.S. Territory, tribal lands (18 U.S.C. § 2265) or Department of Defense installations. (10 U.S.C. § 1561a) Crossing state, territorial, or tribal boundaries to violate this order may result in federal imprisonment. (18 U.S.C. § 2262)

Federal law provides penalties of up to $250,000 fine and 10 years in prison for possessing, transporting, shipping, or receiving any firearm or ammunition while subject to a protective order or after being convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence (18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(8) and (9)) or knowingly transferring a firearm after a conviction of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence (18 U.S.C. § 922(d)(9)).

Questions regarding this notice should be directed to your attorney, law enforcement agency, or the Maryland State Police Licensing Division at 410-653-4500.

After the appearance of the petitioner, and in consideration of the petition and evidence, the court makes the following FINDINGS:

- A. AUSTIN WELLING, who is a person(s) eligible for relief, is: an individual who alleges that within six (6) months before the filing of the petition the respondent committed a rape or a sexual offense or an attempted rape or an attempted sexual offense against the individual.
- B. Petitioner is:
In the case of a vulnerable adult or minor child: A RELATIVE
- C. There is a preponderance of the evidence to believe that the respondent committed the following act(s) of abuse:
Rape or a statutory sexual offense (or attempt)

The court ORDERS:

1. This order is effective through 06/16/2024 at 11:59 PM.
2. Respondent SHALL NOT abuse, threaten to abuse JENNIFER WELLING, AUSTIN WELLING.
3. Respondent SHALL NOT contact, attempt to contact, or harass (in person, by telephone, in writing, or by any other means) JENNIFER WELLING, AUSTIN WELLING.
4. Respondent SHALL NOT enter the residence of JENNIFER WELLING at 6319 CLARIDGE DR. S., FREDERICK, MD 21701 or wherever the person eligible for relief resides.
(Residence includes yard, grounds, outbuildings, and common areas surrounding the dwelling)
5. Respondent SHALL STAY AWAY from:
(1) School: T.J. MIDDLE SCHOOL, 1799 SCHIFFERSTADT BLVD, FREDERICK, MD 21701
6. Respondent SHALL immediately surrender all firearm(s) to FREDERICK COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPT and refrain from possession of any firearm, for the duration of this Final Protective Order.

Temporary or Final Protective Order Notice Illegal Firearms Possession

TO: Protective Order Respondent

RE: Illegal Firearms Possession

A Temporary or Final Protective Order has been entered against you by a court ordering you as the Respondent to surrender to law enforcement authorities any firearm in your possession, and to refrain from possession of any firearm for the duration of the Protective Order.

You may retake possession of the firearm at the expiration of the Protective Order unless: (1) the Protective Order is extended; or (2) you are not otherwise legally entitled to own or possess the firearm.

Process for Surrendering the Firearm:

If a law enforcement officer is serving you personally with the Protective Order, you must immediately surrender all firearms to the officer.

If you have received this Order by mail, you must contact the law enforcement agency designated in the Order and arrange for the immediate surrender of all firearms in your possession. You may transport a firearm to surrender it, if you take the following steps:

- Ⓢ Notify the law enforcement unit, barracks, or station that the firearm is being transported in accordance with the Protective Order;
- Ⓢ Make sure the firearm is unloaded;
- Ⓢ Transport the firearm directly to the law enforcement unit, barracks, or station; and
- Ⓢ Carry a copy of the Protective Order that requires the surrender of any firearm when transporting the firearm to the appropriate authorities.

You should comply with the law enforcement agency's delivery instructions. Surrender each firearm IMMEDIATELY to the designated law enforcement agency for the county or city where the Protective Order was issued. Contact information for the designated law enforcement agency is included with this notice.

Process for Retaking Possession of the Firearm:

At the expiration of the Protective Order, you may apply to retake possession of each firearm by making a request to the law enforcement agency to which the firearm was surrendered. The law enforcement agency will conduct a background investigation to determine whether you are legally entitled to own or possess the firearm. Contact information for the designated law enforcement agency is included with this notice.

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THESE PROVISIONS COULD LEAD TO YOUR ARREST, CRIMINAL PENALTIES AND/OR FORFEITURE OF FIREARMS.
